Terms & conditions

Young learner courses

This is a summary of terms and conditions relating to Bell young learner courses. The full terms and conditions can be found at www.bellenglish.com/terms-policies/. By submitting a booking form you are agreeing to the full terms and conditions. By enrolling a student under 18, you agree to the full terms and conditions on their behalf.

We will refund your booking in full, should we be unable to run the course for the dates you have booked. We will inform you no later than 2 weeks prior to the start date of your booking to either confirm your booking or to cancel/postpone your booking. Again, we strongly recommend that you do not book flights for this course before we have contacted you 2 weeks before the start date of your booking. One reason for this, is that we may suggest that you move your booking to a later date in the course, and therefore you would have to change flight bookings you had already made.

We intend to run the proposed activities and excursions, but we will always be guided by the latest government regulations, so they may be subject to change. However, we will always keep you informed of any changes.

For all individual young learner bookings – made from Monday 1 June 2020 to Thursday 31st March 2022 – bookings can be postponed or cancelled up to 4 weeks before their course start date. In the case of postponement, we will retain the funds as credit for 18 months. In the case of cancellation, we will refund full fees with no questions asked.

For all other face-to-face young learner course bookings, you must submit a booking form and pay a £385 deposit, which is part of your total fees, and the £95 registration fee, within 3 working days of submitting your form. Both payments are non-refundable.

For online courses, no deposit or registration fee is required. To secure your booking, you must pay your fees in full at the time of booking.

Full fees as quoted on your pro-forma invoice must be paid at least 6 weeks before the course start date.

We cannot guarantee to hold the student's place on the course unless all fees are paid in full and on time. Students with unpaid fees will not be admitted to the course.

Payment can be made by bank transfer direct to Bell or through our online payment provider Flywire. In addition to a Flywire handling fee of up to £7, all card payments will be subject to a 2% fee levied by the card company. These fees are non-refundable. It is your responsibility to cover all bank charges and exchange rate differences for payments.

On arrival, all students need to pay a refundable damage/key deposit of £50, which can be deducted from their pocket money.

- Full supervision by qualified and experienced staff
- At least 15 hours a week of lessons/programmed activities
- Accommodation and all meals including packed lunches
- Laundry service
- At least one full-day study tour per week, including entrance fees, and a full programme of social events. (For full programme descriptions please see the individual course details)
- All learning materials, Bell language course portfolio and end of course certificate
- Transfers on scheduled arrival and departure days from and to designated airports/Eurostar train stations only (excluding on our Summer Explorer course)
- Transfers that are not on scheduled arrival and departure days, or not from and to the designated airports/Eurostar train stations
- Occasional optional activities such as trips to amusement parks or the theatre

For young learner course bookings made on or after Thursday 1 July 2021, the following cancellation policy applies: Cancellations must be made in writing to Bell Head Office. Once a booking has been confirmed, the following cancellation notice periods and fees apply to our face-to-face course bookings:

- More than 6 weeks before the course start date: you must pay £385 deposit and £95 registration fee
- Full fees must be paid 4 weeks before the start of the course
- Any Young Learner bookings cancelled less than 4 weeks before the start of the course will receive a 50% refund. Unless the course is cancelled due to government restrictions here in the UK or in the student's home country, or we are unable to run the course for any reason, in which case you will receive a full refund.

If you need to cancel your online course for any reason, you may move your course to an alternative date of your choosing (subject to availability). You may choose the same course again, a different course of the same value, or a different course of a different value. If the new course is of a higher value, you will need to pay the difference.

For any notice period given, a 'week' counts as Sunday to Saturday.

Any refunds must be made by the same payment method and to the same source as the original payment. Fees are not transferable to other students.

We reserve the right to charge an administration fee for any changes made to the original booking.

In the event that Bell has to cancel a course, we will do our best to move the student to an equivalent programme. If this is not possible, we will refund all fees paid to Bell, but will not refund any other payments, such as for flights.

Additional charges for academy options on Summer Explorer courses are non-refundable after the course start date.

It is the responsibility of the client to check the student's visa requirements for entry into the UK, and if necessary apply for and ensure the student is granted the appropriate visa for their period of study with Bell.

Information on visas can be found on the UK Home Office website www.gov.uk/visas-immigration

If you have not received your visa 2 weeks before the course starts, you must inform us so we can work with you to make any necessary arrangements.

If a visa application is rejected and we receive notice in writing, along with a copy of the visa refusal letter, we will refund the following:

- More than 2 weeks before the course starts: all fees except the £95 registration fee and any courier charges
- 2 weeks or less before the course starts: all fees except the £385 deposit, the £95 registration fee and any courier charges

We will only offer refunds in cases for visa refusal where the student followed UK Home Office guidelines for their visa application.

All decisions on visa applications made by the UK Home Office are final.

Do not book flights or make travel arrangements until you have received the booking confirmation documents from Bell. If you cannot book flights for the official arrival and departure dates, you must check with Bell before booking flights for another date.

If you choose to make your own travel arrangements and arrive at the centre directly, please inform us of your intended arrival time. We cannot give any refunds for students not using the Bell transfer service.

Insurance is included as part of our course fees. A summary of the cover, which is provided by Endsleigh, will be sent to you with your booking confirmation. The policy does not cover students who are UK Domicile Residents and it does not cover pre-existing medical conditions.

You must inform us of any disabilities, medical, dietary or other information that may affect the student's ability to participate in the course before the course starts. Any student arriving with a serious medical condition not previously reported, which requires regular staff supervision, may be sent home with no refund of fees.

Students must hand in any medication they bring with them to course staff on arrival. Medicines will be administered under supervision by course staff.

In case of a medical emergency, if the student's parents or guardians cannot be contacted, Bell will act with a duty of care and will arrange for a doctor to give any medical treatment considered necessary, as well as authorise the administration of an anaesthetic and operation.

We recommend that students bring £100–£150 pocket money per week.

To avoid students having to carry large amounts of cash, we offer a free pocket money transfer service. Pocket money can be sent as a Sterling cheque made payable to Bell Educational Services or by bank transfer. Instructions will be sent to you in your pre-arrival information. You are responsible for all bank charges.

We are unable to accept any online or credit card payments for pocket money.

It is your responsibility to inform Bell of an emergency contact telephone number where a parent/guardian or agent can be contacted 24 hours a day, including the student's arrival and departure days.

All courses and course components are run subject to demand.

We reserve the right to change course arrangements and prices without advance notice.

On the first day of the course, students will complete a placement test and will be placed in a class appropriate to their language level, maturity and age. Once the course has started, we reserve the right to move students to the class most appropriate for their language level.

We offer a wide range of activities on our courses. All activities are supervised by qualified staff and all necessary sports and safety equipment is provided.

By agreeing to these terms and conditions you are giving permission for your child to participate in all activities.

Certain Young Learner courses and academies have a minimum language level. Please refer to the course/academy details, our level chart or contact us for further details.

If the language level provided at application is later found to be incorrect, we reserve the right to make any changes considered necessary to the enrolment at the student's own expense.

Bell rules apply to behaviour on our courses, including during study tours and in all accommodation. The rules can be found at www.bellenglish.com/terms-policies/

Any students breaking these rules, or English law, or persisting in serious anti-social behaviour will be disciplined and may be sent home early with no refund of fees.

Bell will only be responsible for loss or damage suffered by a student which occurs as a foreseeable or its negligence.

Nothing in the terms and conditions shall limit or exclude Bell's liability for death or personal injury caused by negligence, or for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.

Bell are not liable for any failure or delay in providing our services that occur as a result of any event outside our reasonable control, such as but not limited to war, disease outbreak, natural disaster or terrorist attack.

In such cases, we will immediately notify you in writing and shall be excused from performing our obligations for the duration of the force majeure event.

These terms and conditions are governed by English law. English courts will have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any disputes that may arise out of the terms and conditions.
