

Sample teachers

Lisa C, Eastbourne

Lisa lives in Eastbourne, a vibrant and exciting location with lots to see and do, especially in summer. There are various activities locally including tennis, mountain biking, water sports (windsurfing, sailing, canoeing and kayaking), horse riding and hill walking. The area also has an abundance of scenic seaside and countryside walks, offering itself for hiking.

Francesca L, Cheltenham

Francesca lives in a comfortable, modern home in the lovely spa town of Cheltenham. The area offers a variety of activity options such as horse-riding, rock climbing, cycling in Forest of Dean, golf, narrowboats, even flying trapeze. Apart from those, Francesca's house also provides easy access to an outdoor swimming pool, a bowling alley and a trampoline centre.

Jeanne M, Dublin

Jeanne lives in a wonderful central Dublin location, which gives students the perfect balance of city life and easy access to all the fantastic adventure activities that are on offer in the surrounding countryside. Jeanne and her sons love outdoor activities like trampolining, hill walking, cycling and kayaking.

Sample teachers

Catherine R, Cambridgeshire

Catherine R regularly organises tennis lessons for her students with a local tennis coach. They cater for students of all abilities and Catherine finds this to be a great way for students to let off steam as well as honing their tennis skills.

Husna G, Oxfordshire

Husna has been teaching with Homelingua since 2017 and goes above and beyond to make sure her students have an active and enriching time whilst on their Homelingua course. Tennis lessons take place nearby to Oxford in Husna's local area and are taught by an experienced local tennis coach.

Viv P, Hampshire

Viv lives in Fleet with her husband Nick and her two children. She has been teaching for over 20 years and holds both the TEFL Q and CELTA qualification. In addition to lessons with a qualified local instructor, Viv's family enjoy walking, reading, movie nights and horse riding.

Sample teachers

Louise B, Warwickshire

Louise lives in a traditional barn in the countryside, amidst woods and lakes. The location is ideal for scenic walks and outdoor games, while many beautiful towns and villages are easily accessible for excursions. Louise loves horse riding and often organises sessions for her students in nearby stables.

Eve C, Cambridgeshire

Eve is a qualified horse-riding instructor with a passion for riding and years of experience in it. Her house is situated in a small village just outside of Cambridge, and students will be able to take horse-riding sessions at the College of West Anglia, only 20 minutes away from Eve's house.

Elaine R, Hampshire

Elaine lives in the South of England, in an area of outstanding natural beauty, near Southampton. She is an avid rider and often organises lessons for her students in her local training centre.

Sample teachers

Tom M, Edinburgh

Tom is a member of the Bruntsfield Links Golfing Society (the 4th oldest golf club in the world) and regularly plays. Scotland is home to some of the best gold in the world and of course St Andrews is only an hour away by car.

Dennis C, Rochdale

Dennis has a wealth of golf courses on his doorstep and is superbly located to explore the excellent golf available in the North of England. Dennis is a keen golfer and has even organised pitch 'n' putt tournaments for students in the past.

Iain M, Edinburgh

Iain has been working with Homelingua since 2016 and has a spacious Edinburgh flat which allows easy access to all the great gold that Scotland has to offer.

Sample teachers

Heather W, Oxfordshire

Heather W lives with her family just outside of Oxford in a traditional British home. Whilst Heather's focus is on English language, she also holds a wealth of experience in teaching music. For students who wish to gain an introduction into the fundamentals of music such as rhythm, notes and genres, a course arranged by Heather would be ideal. Oxford itself has a fantastic music scene so visits to see musicians in concert are certainly possible.

Sonya A, London

Sonya A lives in north London with her husband and daughter. She holds a wealth of experience in English language but does also hold interest in music as her husband himself is a musician, specialising in guitar. With this in mind, there is ample opportunity for more advanced students to practice a range of string instruments such as guitar, ukulele and violin. Furthermore, students will have the opportunity to understand what a career in music might entail and gain an insight into the music scene in London!

Sample teachers

Andrea T, London

Andrea lives in Hampton, a small suburb in south west London, with royal parks and the River Thames within walking distance of the house. Hampton has small local shops, a library and an outdoor swimming pool. Hampton Hill High Street is close by with many cafes and restaurants.

Rowena G, Cambridgeshire

Rowena G lives just outside Cambridge in a beautiful converted windmill with her family. She has hosted many courses for Homelingua but given the rich history of Cambridge is also perfectly places for students wishing to immerse themselves in the cobbled streets and ancient colleges the city has to offer. In combination with this, students will of course gain an interesting cultural insight into life within a traditional British family.

Tom M, Edinburgh

Tom lives in Edinburgh with his wife Fo. His home is located in Morningside which is regarded as one of the nicest parts of Edinburgh in which to live. It is a short walk from Tom's home to the local high street where you will find shops, cinemas, a market, pubs and eating places. It is a 5-10 minute bus journey into the city centre or you could walk (about 25 minutes to the Royal Mile). In the city centre, you will find all the attractions and sights such as the castle, Holyrood Palace, Old Town and Parliament. There are also theatres, restaurants, shops and pubs.

Sample teachers

Jane M, Frodsham

Jane M lives just outside of Manchester in the village of Frodsham with her husband Sean. Sean is an interior designer. He is very sporty and does triathlons and runs and cycles whenever he can. Jane's home is a comfortable, stylish period house which was built in 1906. Jane finds the North West of England a great place to be. It's true that people are friendly in the North and there are plenty of cultural and sporting activities.

Heather W, Oxfordshire

Heather W lives just outside of Oxford with her husband and two sons, who enjoy sports (especially watching and playing football). Heather's home has 4 bedrooms, a large garden with a stream, a terrace and a BBQ. There is a kitchen / diner and study area, a lounge with a TV and a conservatory.

Lucy T, Bristol

Lucy T lives in Bristol in lovely home equipped with a courtyard garden for enjoying the sunshine. She has been teaching for many years but also thoroughly enjoys showing students the lively culture of her surrounding area. Lucy is located a 10 minute walk from all of the main sights in Bristol, so can offer a range of activities such as the Clifton Suspension Bridge, visiting Stokes Croft which is the birthplace of the graffiti artist Banksy and even a trip to the ancient Roman Baths in the nearby city of Bath. This course will enable students to gain an insight into the specific culture of western England, as well as British culture as a whole.

Sample teachers

Simon G, London

Simon lives in a quiet, beautiful suburb of London right by the Thames, surrounded by serene parks. A very creative mind, Simon used to be an actor in the West End, and has also published several award-winning books. Cooking is his passion and he makes sure he keeps all of his students well fed, but would also be delighted to share some of his inspiration.

Louise P, Cambridge

Louise is a cooking and baking enthusiast, to the extent that she competed in The Great British Bake off, made it to the third round of auditions and was commended for her pastry-making skills. Louise enjoys experimenting in the kitchen and often shares her expertise with like-minded students. Students are welcome to attend cheese and wine tastings events with her in Cambridge.

Paula M, Dublin

Paula is based in Dublin, just 10 minutes ride from the city centre. She is particularly interested in health and wellness, and cooking is one of her main hobbies. Cooking and serving nutritious meals gives her great pleasure and she finds it a very bonding experience to share with her students.

Sample teachers

Nigel A, London

Nigel A lives in south London and is a history enthusiast. His local area is perfectly suited for students who would like the opportunity to learn more about British History with a teacher who has a vast amount of knowledge. Nigel lives with his partner Julie and together they enjoy taking students to famous historical sights such as the Tower of London, the Houses of Parliament and Chartwell House, the home of Winston Churchill.

Phil S, Seaford

Phil S lives with his wife Carolina in the pretty seaside town of Seaford. Together they have been teaching for many years; Phil holds a PGCE whilst Carolina holds a CELTA. They are perfectly situated to explore locations that are part of Brighton's rich history, such as the Royal Pavilion and the fascinating history of Lewes Castle in Lewes, but also close enough to London to visit sites of historic importance such as Buckingham Palace and Tower Bridge.

Susan T, Berkshire

Susan lives in the historic town of Newbury, nestled in the heart of West Berkshire. Susan has many places to visit nearby in connection with history, including Avesbury Stone Circle, Winchester Cathedral, Donnington Castle, Highclere Castle and Basildon Park.

Sample teachers

Philip W, Kent

Philip is a qualified and very experienced teacher of English as a foreign language. Philip originally worked in business before becoming an English language teacher. His expertise was in marketing, economics and finance and he often uses these skills when teaching English. He is interested in languages and speaks German and some Dutch. He is very knowledgeable about British history which is very useful when he takes students on excursions.

Graham E, East Sussex

Graham is an enthusiastic English teacher, who has plenty of experience with adult students and younger learners. He has been teaching international students from Europe, the Middle East, South America and Asia for more than ten years in the UK. Before that he lived and taught in Turkey and the Czech Republic for several years. He often teach IELTS and FCE courses in addition to general and Business English.

Caroline B, Oxfordshire

Caroline lives in a beautiful home in Oxford where there is so much to do and see. She lives in a three bedroom cottage with a lovely English garden. They have a small dog called Saffron who is very friendly. Caroline enjoys helping and motivating her students, she finds it fulfilling to contribute to learners' progress. Caroline is herself a linguist and so knows the challenges of learning a foreign language. She has taught to children as young as 4 years old, teenagers, adults and professionals in schools and at home.